

Spring 2009

Welcome to our newsletter.

In the future I hope to include some training tips, highlights from individuals attending these clinics, news items and product specials. It will be available as a link on the websites at www.cameronequine.com or www.muletrainer.com and we will send it out to anyone we have on our 'email phone tree'.

Please note that this will be for the exclusive use of Cameron Mule Company.

Do something positive for you and your mule... Join the BRAD CAMERON MOVEMENT!

Cameron Mule Company,

Feeling kind of "Un -stimulated" lately about our economy when listening to the news. The media's constant gloom and doom reports are enough to make anyone numb.

Well you know what...it's not ALL bad. How about fuel... its half the price per gallon as it was last year! Vehicles are cheaper too.

So why not get out of this negative thinking, economic rut and do something POSITIVE for yourself and something rewarding for your mule?

How about a Brad Cameron Clinic? Come and get reconnected with your mule so you can have a trained and trusted animal for those summer trails! Spend a few days laughing and having fun with fellow mule people! Do a little something for yourself for a change. Your mule will thank you for it!

Those who have participated in Brad's clinics so far this year have come away informed, excited and empowered! Instead of struggling with the same things time after time, get some positive feedback from Brad on what you and your mule can accomplish TOGETHER! Get trustworthy help on correcting those trouble spots, and learn how to solve problems when they come up!

How about even MORE good news...****

Brad's clinics are still the same price as last year!

There is a $50.00 discount per class for early entries!

Brad's products and DVD's are all discounted when you buy at a clinic!

All major credit cards are accepted!

So what do you say, YOU deserve some fun, and you can learn at the same time?

YOUR MULE IS WAITING ON YOU!

Brad Cameron and his Mulemanship Clinics are headed your way... so don't delay!

For entry information, call a clinic host listed in the box on the right and get signed up for a positive learning experience from the Nation's # 1 Mule Clinician, Brad Cameron!
